

MEMBERS OF THE BOARD

President: Barbara Valeri

Barbara Valeri is a retired Federal Government executive manager who worked for the Department of Defense for 30 years. She has extensive experience in the areas of financial management, project management, customer relations and policy development. Mrs. Valeri has served on the condominium Board for a number of years as the Secretary and the President. Her objective is to ensure that The Towers maintains its edge in an increasingly competitive luxury condominium market and to provide for the comfort and security of its residents. Her current term on the Board will end in April 2024.

Vice President: Carol Rubinstein

Carol Rubinstein is a retired teacher who taught high school French for 37 years and served as Chair of the World Language Department. Her experience in working on committees, and her problem-solving, goal setting and communication skills all serve as an excellent foundation for service to and on the Board of Directors. She looks forward to helping make decisions which will ensure the continued excellence and luxury for which Harbor Court is known. Mrs. Rubinstein's current term of office will end in April 2026.

Treasurer: Gary Greenblatt

Gary Greenblatt is a practicing attorney with over 44 years of experience in the area of debtor-creditor rights. He previously served as Vice President of the Board where his legal expertise and advice was invaluable in providing the context for legal issues facing the Board. Given his specific knowledge of the condominium's operations and requirements, he is well positioned to address the budget and other matters coming before the Board and to help maintain The Towers reputation as a first-class condominium complex. Mr. Greenblatt's current term on the Board will end in April 2025.

Secretary: Amy Bernstein

Amy Bernstein has worked for over 30 years as a journalist, speechwriter, and communications director for government and nonprofit organizations. She also has significant experience developing and leading group workshops and trainings on a variety of topics. Her aim is to help preserve the value and integrity of the condominium and identify ways in which to support its excellent staff. She will seek opportunities to improve communications with residents and to keep abreast of local political and infrastructure decisions that affect our community. Her term on the Board will expire in April 2025.

Member at Large: Nathan Braverman

Judge Braverman practiced law in Baltimore for 19 years and then served for 16 years as a judge on the District Court of Maryland. Although “retired” since 2016, he still spends several days a month filling in for other judges around the State who are not available or are unable to hear cases on their dockets. He also provides mediation and other dispute resolution services to those in the private as well as public domains. Judge Braverman joined the Board to contribute to the effective management and smooth operation of the condominium. His term on the Board will end in April 2026.

